

Optional Tours

We are pleased to offer several tours of Philadelphia and the surrounding countryside, which provide a pleasant mix of history, culture and scenery of the area. We are proud of our city and hope that you will take the opportunity to witness its many delightful attractions. All tours will begin and end at the Sheraton Philadelphia City Center Hotel (at the 17th Street entrance). Provided through Centipede Tours of Philadelphia, each tour includes a Centipede Tours guide, deluxe transportation, gratuities, admissions where applicable, and meals as indicated.

Early registration is a "MUST" as seats are limited and are available on a first-come, first-served basis. The deadline for tour reservations is March 30, 2009. To register, go on-line to www.rhinologyworld.com and follow the Optional Tours link.

Wednesday, April 15th Washington, DC

8:00am–8:00pm • $99.00 per person

Arrive a day early and leave from Philadelphia to visit our nation's capital. Trip will include a four hour tour of the city of Washington, DC, with time on your own to visit the memorials and the Smithsonian Institute.

Thursday, April 16th Historic Philadelphia

9:00am–1:00pm • $42.00 per person

No visit to Philadelphia is complete without a tour of the "...most historic square mile in the United States". This will include such sites as the Liberty Bell, Independence Hall, Congress Hall, Franklin Court, the Betsy Ross house, Christ Church and Elfreth's Alley.

Courtesy, Winterthur

Friday, April 17th Pennsylvania Dutch (Amish) Country

9:00am–5:00pm • $86.00 per person

Journey back in time as you travel through the pastoral countryside of Lancaster County. Your guide will acquaint you with the customs and lifestyles of these quiet people who live without the modern conveniences we take for granted.

The day will include a drive through the farmlands to see such sites as milk-white barns and horse-drawn buggies; a visit to an Amish house and farm; and a real Pennsylvania Dutch style lunch with all the trimmings including Shoo-fly pie. There will also be time to shop for Amish specialties such as jams and relishes, quilts and crafts before returning to the hotel...and the 21st century.

Friday, April 17th King of Prussia Mall

9:00am–3:00pm • $37.00 per person

Visit the King of Prussia Mall, the east coast's premier destination for fashion, dining and shopping, featuring more than 400 stores, restaurants and boutiques. Neiman Marcus, Nordstrom, Bloomingdale's, Tiffany & Co., Coach, Louis Vuitton, and Hermès, just to name a few! With the best of New York, Milan, and Paris in one destination, King of Prussia is the nation's largest retail shopping mall. Receive a coupon book. AND BEST OF ALL...King of Prussia features TAX-FREE clothing and shoes!

Saturday, April 18th Winterthur

9:00am–2:00pm • $64.00 per person

Once the home of Henry Francis du Pont, Winterthur now houses his collection of American decorative arts crafted between 1640 and 1840. The mansion itself is surrounded by private gardens of striking beauty, much of which he landscaped himself to reflect the changing of the seasons.

Saturday, April 18th

Atlantic City

5:00pm–1:00am • $60.00 per person

Spend an evening in the "Las Vegas of the East". Travel to Atlantic City at the New Jersey shore, home to ten top notch gambling halls. Atlantic City casinos have what you want—slots, poker, blackjack, roulette, craps, baccarat, keno, race books and specialty table games provide non-stop action along the Boardwalk and in the Marina District. There will be plenty of time to eat dinner on your own at any one of the many quality restaurants, or take in a show! And, of course there is plenty of shopping in the distinctive hotel and casino boutiques. (Minimum 30 persons.)

Sunday, April 19th Barnes Foundation

9:00am–1:00pm • $48.00 per person

The Barnes Foundation was established by Dr. Albert C. Barnes in 1922 to "promote the advancement of education and the appreciation of the fine arts". It houses one of the world's finest private collections of Impressionist, Post-Impressionist and early Modern paintings including works by Renoir, Cezanne, Matisse, Picasso and Modigliani. He chose and arranged the works in "wall ensembles" to illustrate for the Foundation's students the visual elements and aesthetic traditions he felt were evident in all art forms across periods and cultures.

Monday, April 20th New York City

8:00am–8:00pm • $109.00 per person

Stay an extra day, and travel from Philadelphia to New York City. Trip will include admission to the "Top of the Rock," an observation deck 70 stories above NYC with a clear, 360 degree view of the "Big Apple" and a three hour guided tour of the city, as well as free time for lunch on your own at the South Street Seaport.

Please note: Prices are based on availability when booked and on a minimum of 20 persons per tour (unless otherwise noted).